

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE: Nov 25 - 26, 2017

Women as agents of change	Permaculture as a social responsibility	Grassroots permaculture in action	Other sessions
Sustainable water resource management	Revitalising and preserving traditional farming practices	Permaculture and climate change adaptation	Other activities

		Dr. Venkat Main Hall	Bill Mollison Hall 1	Masanobu Fukuoka Hall 2	Bhaskar Save Hall 3	Indian farmers stories Basement	Kids zone	Demonstrations
Saturday, November 25
8.00 am	9.00 am	Registrations
8.00 am	9.00 am	Breakfast
9.00 am	9.20 am	Dedications by N. Koppula & S. Wilson					Morning circle & Group warm up
9.20 am	9.30 am	Welcoming address by David Holmgren
9.30 am	10.00 am	Conference inauguration
10.00 am	10.30 am	Permaculture movement in India
10.30 am	11.15 am	Dr. Vandana Shiva "Women lead the change from violence to non-violence, from greed to caring and sharing"					Scavenger hunt
11.15 am	12.00 pm	Robyn Francis "Regenerating community resilience in a changing world"
12.00 pm	12.15 pm	Tea break
12.15 pm	1.00 pm	Panel discussion led by Rowe Morrow "The difficulties, and enormous potential contribution, of Permaculture for mass migration and refugees"	Linda Kabaira "Building resilience in west Zambia through female Permaculture gardening"	Stuart Muir Wilson "Implementing social and environmental justice with Permaculture for the most vulnerable citizens of Melbourne"	Qinghua Yuan "Revive urban lands in Chinese modern cities, according to the principles of Permaculture"	Indian farmers stories	Design your own bug	Demonstrations:  Pitcher irrigation, Splitting of pulses with stone grinder, Local plant medicine remedies for all regular home needs, Explanation of variety of bullock plowing and sowing implements, Seed preservation The Permaculture Kitchen (Rocket Stove, Solar stoves, Clay Pot for cool water, Pot fridge, Rocket stoves), Rabi and Kharif cropping patterns, Chicken care, Bio-innoculants-Garbage enzymes, Soil display, Tree species appropriate for permaculture in Telangana
1.00 pm	2.00 pm	Lunch
2.00 pm	2.45 pm	To be announced	Brock Dolman "Basins of relations: thinking like a permacultural watershed"	Mugove Walter Nyika "Permaculture as a tool for shaping the future that we want - working with young people in schools"	Clea Chandmal "Permaculture kitchen gardens as a solution for malnutrition - a case study from central India"	Indian farmers stories	Personal pendants & lucky charms
3.00 pm	3.45 pm	To be announced	Raya &amp; Freedom Cole "Ancient Indian agriculture: Ayurvedic arboriculture and plant care"	Erle Rahaman-Noronha "Successes and challenges in implementing Permaculture designs in heavy clays and loose sands in the Caribbean in a time of climate change"	Dr. Jigmet Yangchan "Impact of resource conservation interventions on water and sediment yield in Shiwalik watershed"	Indian farmers stories
3.45 pm	4.15 pm	Tea break
4.15 pm	5.00 pm	Prof. Sultan Ismail "Soil health: an India earthworm's eyeview"						Mindfulness & sensory activity
5.00pm	5.30pm	Networking
5.30pm	7.00 pm	Cultural performance
7.00 pm	9.30 pm	Gala dinner & Entertainment
9.30 pm	10.00 pm	Back to accommodation

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE: Nov 25 - 26, 2017

Women as agents of change	Permaculture as a social responsibility	Grassroots permaculture in action	Other sessions
Sustainable water resource management	Revitalising and preserving traditional farming practices	Permaculture and climate change adaptation	Other activities

		Dr. Venkat Main Hall	Bill Mollison Hall 1	Masanobu Fukuoka Hall 2	Bhaskar Save Hall 3	Indian farmers stories Basement	Kids zone	Demonstrations
Sunday, November 26
8.00 am	9.00 am	Breakfast
9.00 am	9.15 am	Public warming up						Morning Circle & Group Games
9.15 am	10.00 am	Padma &amp; Narsanna Koppula "Aranya's Permaculture initiatives"
10.00 am	10.45 am	Sri Rajendra Singh "Flow: an experience of Tarun Bharat Sangh (TBS)"						Natural photo frames
10.45 am	11.15 am	Tea break							Supervised tea break
11.15 am	12.00 pm	Starhawk "Permaculture activism and climate change"	Tierra Martinez &amp; Beatriz Ramirez "Building a new paradigm: Permaculture as a dream of peace"	Cadi Pink "Onwards with natural patterns: Lush and Permaculture"	Leigh Brown "How a Permaculture grassroots youth movement can bring about resilience in cities and settlements"	Indian farmers stories	Active bodies	Demonstrations: Pitcher irrigation, Splitting of pulses with stone grinder, Local plant medicine remedies for all regular home needs, Explanation of variety of bullock plowing and sowing implements, Seed preservation
12.15 pm	1.00 pm	Manish Jain "Deschooling and Permaculture"	Cathe' Fish "Empowering women worldwide with water and sun energy management"	François Léger "Living on very small farms with Permaculture principles: examples of French microfarms combining ecological, social and technical intelligence"	Boniface S. Gomes "Building capacity and empowering communities towards climate change adaptation and food security in Southern Bangladesh"	Indian farmers stories	Earth music
1.00 pm	2.00 pm	Lunch							Unsupervised lunch
2.00 pm	2.45 pm	Nipun Mehta "Social Permaculture: Connecting branch tips to the roots"	Himalayan Permaculture Centre "Building household and community resilience in the Himalayas"	KS Gopal "Agriculture rejuvenation in drought prone areas: moisture at the zone and microbes as soil enrichment"	Nicholas Syano "Community regeneration through dryland Permaculture: Maiuni community case in Kenya"	Indian farmers stories	Making Mandalas	The Permaculture Kitchen (Rocket Stove, Solar stoves, Clay Pot for cool water, Pot fridge, Rocket stoves), Rabi and Kharif cropping patterns, Chicken care, Bio-innoculants-Garbage enzymes, Soil display, Tree species appropriate for permaculture in Telangana
3.00 pm	3.45 pm	Andy Goldring "Permaculture, sociocracy and changing the world"	Kiyokazu Shidara "Fukushima disaster and Permaculture: how to handle radiation in the soil and the body through biological methods?"	Seetha Ananthavisan "Fostering holistic thinking through gardening in schools"	Christopher Nesbitt "Permaculture as a tool for climate change mitigation and poverty alleviation"	Indian farmers stories
3.45 pm	4.15 pm	Tea break							Supervised tea break
4.15 pm	5.00 pm	Panel discussion led by Robin Clayfield: "Are women leading the change?"						Local Indian songs
5.00 pm	5.30 pm	Closing ceremony & Announcements
5.30 pm	6.00 pm	Networking
6.00 pm	7.00 pm	Cultural performance
7.00 pm	9.00 pm	Dinner & Entertainment
9.00 pm	9.30 pm	Back to accommodation								